CONDITIONS OF SALE

The products of Armfield Limited are sold subject to the Standard Conditions currently in force of the British Electrical and Allied Manufacturers' Association Limited, as follows:

For machinery and equipment (exclusive of erection) United Kingdom – Conditions of Sale A
For machinery and equipment (exclusive of erection) export f.o.b. – Conditions of Sale AE
For machinery and equipment (exclusive of erection) export c.i.f. – Conditions of Sale AEC but subject to the following additional Conditions and variations. In case of any inconsistency between the Conditions of Sale of the British Electrical and Allied Manufacturers' Association Limited and the following conditions, the following shall prevail:

1. Any variation of these Conditions in any document of the buyer is inapplicable unless accepted in writing by us.
2. Unless our quotation, tender or estimate is stated to be a fixed price one, all quotations, tenders and estimates are based on current prices and are subject to amendment on or after acceptance to meet any rise or fall of prices of materials, components, plant, machinery and other items and wage rates. All goods sold and work done will be charged at the prices ruling at the date of despatch or completion of work.
3. Any time or date for delivery named by us is an estimate only and we shall not be responsible for the consequences of any delay.
4. Neither we nor our servants shall be liable for any information or advice given, or opinions expressed by us or any of our servants concerning the use or suitability of goods supplied by us for any purpose other than that specified in our literature or advertisement.
5. Descriptions and illustrations contained in any catalogue, price list and other advertising matter whether published by us or by any other person, firm or company are intended to present only a general description of the goods described therein and may be altered, varied or cancelled at any time without notice to the buyer. They shall not be taken as forming part of any tender, quotation or estimate.
6. We reserve the copyright in respect of any publication, illustration, plan, drawing, list of components and materials which are supplied to the buyer. Where the buyer is supplied with a copy of any calculation used by us in preparing our tender, quotation or estimate, the calculation may not be divulged to any third party without our written consent.
7. In the absence of any written agreement to the contrary, payment for goods sold and delivered shall be due 30 days from the date of the invoice rendered by us to the buyer. We reserve the right to charge interest at the rate of 2% per annum above U.K. Bank Rate for the time being on accounts from the date upon which they become due until the date of payment.
8. We shall not be liable in respect of any claims whether arising in contract or in tort for any injury, loss or damage caused to any person or property by or arising out of malfunction of any goods supplied by us or on our behalf or out of the doing or mode or doing any work, or any consequential loss or damage arising therefrom.
9. In these conditions of sale the term 'buyer' shall include any purchaser or proposed purchaser from us and any other person, firm or company or corporation who places an order, requisition or indent for goods to be sold or supplied or for work to be done by or to be secured by us.
10. Once a contract exists between the buyer and Armfield Limited, the buyer shall not cancel the contract except with our prior written consent and upon terms which will indemnify us against any loss or damage caused thereby.
